

New opportunity – starting Jan 2023

THE FRIARY PEN

Swipe for more information

Why get involved

IF

you are interested in writing as a career

IF

you enjoy writing

IF

you want to improve your writing for your GCSE/A Level

IF

you are interested in editing/publishing/journalism

IF

you want the opportunity to build a portfolio

IF

you want to see your name in print

There will be weekly sessions afterschool, focusing on different mediums of creative writing, and all looking to inspire you to write or build skills for your writing.

*These are aimed at Year 9+ (but if you are younger with a passion for writing,
please do speak to us and get involved).*

These weekly sessions will focus on how to make writing a career and give you industry experience/skills and help you build your portfolio.

We will also collect, edit and publish a termly 'e-zine' full of creative work, articles, essays, and artwork based on a theme. You will have the opportunity to write/ create/ edit or help publish this.

10th Jan Prose: world building
How to create realistic worlds
in fictional writing.

17th Jan Poetry: planning and writing
different types of poetry.

24th Jan Prose: character building
How to create realistic
characters and registers

31st Jan Non-Fiction: life writing
How to write memoirs/
autobiographically

7th Feb Journalism: writing articles with an argument – focus on world events/big ideas

14th Feb Prose: plotting a novel.
4 and 5 act structure –
plotting character arcs

21st Feb Ghost writing:
How to write speeches and
follow another's register

The schedule of sessions Jan –
Feb 2023

Every Tuesday
in W6
afterschool

You do not need to attend the sessions to submit work to be published in the termly zine.

---

Each session focusses on a different style so you can dip in and out as you choose.

PEN

If you want to know more - talk to Mrs Wright in English or drop an email to [awright@friary.
greywoodmst.co.uk](mailto:awright@friary.greywoodmst.co.uk)

