

Write about the character of Gerald and the way he is presented in the play [40]

- 1) Who is Gerald Croft? – First impressions
- 2) Mr Birling: ‘You’re the kind of son-in-law I’ve always wanted’ – Why does Mr Birling hold Gerald in such high regard?
- 3) ‘You had no choice’ – Why does Gerald side with Mr Birling about his decision to sack Eva Smith?
- 4) ‘So-for god’s sake- don’t say anything to the Inspector.’ – What does Gerald’s attempts to cover his involvement up show?
- 5) ‘It’s a favourite haunt of the women of the town.’ – What does Gerald’s admission here show?
- 6) ‘I was sorry for her...I didn’t ask for anything in return.’ Why did Gerald initially want to help Daisy Renton? What does this reveal about him?
- 7) (distressed) sorry – I – well, I’ve suddenly realized – taken it in properly – that’s she’s dead’ What does this reaction suggest about Gerald?
- 8) ‘Any man would have done’ – Daisy Renton eventually became his mistress – What does this suggest about Gerald?
- 9) ‘I’d like to be alone for a while’ – What two interpretations can there be of Gerald’s decision to leave the party? (positive and negative)
- 10) ‘We’ve been had.’ – What does Gerald’s key involvement in figuring out the hoax suggest about his character? (his attitudes/whether he has learned anything)
- 11) Mr Birling ‘Here’s to us’ – Why is Gerald’s toast with Mr and Mrs Birling symbolic?
- 12) ‘Everything’s all right now, Sheila. What about this ring?’ – What does this offer suggest?
- 13) Overall opinion. What is your overall opinion of Gerald?

Write about the character of Gerald and the way he is presented in the play [40]

- 1) Who is Gerald Croft? – First impressions
- 2) Mr Birling: ‘You’re the kind of son-in-law I’ve always wanted’ – Why does Mr Birling hold Gerald in such high regard?
- 3) ‘You had no choice’ – Why does Gerald side with Mr Birling about his decision to sack Eva Smith?
- 4) ‘So-for god’s sake- don’t say anything to the Inspector.’ – What does Gerald’s attempts to cover his involvement up show?
- 5) ‘It’s a favourite haunt of the women of the town.’ – What does Gerald’s admission here show?
- 6) ‘I was sorry for her...I didn’t ask for anything in return.’ Why did Gerald initially want to help Daisy Renton? What does this reveal about him?
- 7) (distressed) sorry – I – well, I’ve suddenly realized – taken it in properly – that’s she’s dead’ What does this reaction suggest about Gerald?
- 8) ‘Any man would have done’ – Daisy Renton eventually became his mistress – What does this suggest about Gerald?
- 9) ‘I’d like to be alone for a while’ – What two interpretations can there be of Gerald’s decision to leave the party? (positive and negative)
- 10) ‘We’ve been had.’ – What does Gerald’s key involvement in figuring out the hoax suggest about his character? (his attitudes/whether he has learned anything)
- 11) Mr Birling ‘Here’s to us’ – Why is Gerald’s toast with Mr and Mrs Birling symbolic?
- 12) ‘Everything’s all right now, Sheila. What about this ring?’ – What does this offer suggest?
- 13) Overall opinion. What is your overall opinion of Gerald?