

Five-a-day Starter: Ozymandias

| | |
|--|--|
| Date: | |
| Which LINE from 'Hawk Roosting' is this image showing?  Extension: What does this line suggest? Method used? | |
| "And the earth's face upward for my inspection," What does this line imply about how the hawk views himself? | |
| "Between my _____ head and _____ feet: Or in sleep _____ perfect kills and eat." What are the missing words? What does it mean? What method is used? What does this convey about the hawk? | |
| How could the position of the hawk in the opening line (what is the opening line for a bonus point?) be significant? Challenge: Is there more than one way to interpret this? | |
| Who is the speaker (NOT POET) of this poem? How could reinforce the theme of power? | |