

Write about Mrs Birling and the way in which she is presented in An Inspector Calls [40]

- 1) 'A rather cold woman' 'Her husband's social superior' – what are our first impressions of her?
- 2) 'Now, Sheila, don't tease him' – Why does Mrs Birling criticise Sheila for questioning Gerald's whereabouts the previous summer? What does this show?
- 3) 'Our congratulations' – How is Mrs Birling feeling at the start of the play? Why?
- 4) 'I don't think we can help you much' – What do Mrs Birling's initial attitudes towards the suicide highlight?
- 5) 'Girls of the class' – What does this quote suggest about Mrs Birling's attitudes towards the lower classes? Who does she share this attitude with?
- 6) 'My husband was Lord Mayor only two years ago' – Why does Mrs Birling mention this fact to the Inspector?
- 7) 'No, of course not. He's only a boy.' – What does Mrs Birling's shock at the revelation about Eric's drinking habits show?
- 8) 'No. Why should I?' – What does Mrs Birling's initial denial about recognising Daisy Renton show?
- 9) 'I beg your pardon!' – Why is Mrs Birling (like her husband) so offended by the Inspector?
- 10) 'I consider I did my duty' – What do Mrs Birling's feelings about her decision to refuse to help Daisy Renton show?
- 11) 'It wasn't I who had her turned out of her employment – Which probably began it all.' – What does Mrs Birling try to do in this quote? What does it show?
- 12) 'He should be made an example of' – What does her slow realisation about the father of Daisy Renton's child show?
- 13) 'No –Eric – please – I didn't know – I didn't understand' – How does Mrs Birling feel here? What does this suggest?
- 14) 'I felt it all the time. He never even looked like one' – What is Mrs Birling doing here? Why?
- 15) 'I'm most grateful' – Why is Mrs Birling so pleased to find out that it was a hoax?
- 16) 'In the morning they'll be as amused as we are.' – What does the comment to Sheila and Eric show?

Write about Mrs Birling and the way in which she is presented in An Inspector Calls [40]

- 1) 'A rather cold woman' 'Her husband's social superior' – what are our first impressions of her?
- 2) 'Now, Sheila, don't tease him' – Why does Mrs Birling criticise Sheila for questioning Gerald's whereabouts the previous summer? What does this show?
- 3) 'Our congratulations' – How is Mrs Birling feeling at the start of the play? Why?
- 4) 'I don't think we can help you much' – What do Mrs Birling's initial attitudes towards the suicide highlight?
- 5) 'Girls of the class' – What does this quote suggest about Mrs Birling's attitudes towards the lower classes? Who does she share this attitude with?
- 6) 'My husband was Lord Mayor only two years ago' – Why does Mrs Birling mention this fact to the Inspector?
- 7) 'No, of course not. He's only a boy.' – What does Mrs Birling's shock at the revelation about Eric's drinking habits show?
- 8) 'No. Why should I?' – What does Mrs Birling's initial denial about recognising Daisy Renton show?
- 9) 'I beg your pardon!' – Why is Mrs Birling (like her husband) so offended by the Inspector?
- 10) 'I consider I did my duty' – What do Mrs Birling's feelings about her decision to refuse to help Daisy Renton show?
- 11) 'It wasn't I who had her turned out of her employment – Which probably began it all.' – What does Mrs Birling try to do in this quote? What does it show?
- 12) 'He should be made an example of' – What does her slow realisation about the father of Daisy Renton's child show?
- 13) 'No –Eric – please – I didn't know – I didn't understand' – How does Mrs Birling feel here? What does this suggest?
- 14) 'I felt it all the time. He never even looked like one' – What is Mrs Birling doing here? Why?
- 15) 'I'm most grateful' – Why is Mrs Birling so pleased to find out that it was a hoax?
- 16) 'In the morning they'll be as amused as we are.' – What does the comment to Sheila and Eric show?

